

SHARKS OF FALSE BAY: 3. SOUPFIN SHARK

SOUPFIN SHARK

Sopvinhaai

Galeorhinus galeus

Max length: 195 cm

IUCN status: Critically endangered

Wide distribution

save our seas
shark education centre

This shark is one of the 13 most common species found in False Bay, South Africa. The International Union for Conservation of Nature's (IUCN) Red List of Threatened Species (www.iucnredlist.org) indicates the global conservation status of a species.

In this colouring series, species are listed as having either a wide distribution or being endemic to Africa (which means the species is only found there).

ILLUSTRATED BY